

"It is not in a Splendid Government, supported by Powerful Monopolies and Aristocratic Establishments that the people find happiness, or their Liberties protection ; but in a plain system, void of pomp, protecting all, and granting favors to none."—JACKSON

THE RAILROAD.

Mr. O'Day said the company is going to Louisville, Salem and Littleton, a distance of two hundred miles. Mr. O'Day said the ould first be extended to a point near St. Louis, where to West Plains would cross the Gulf Road. The name of the road is said to be the St. Louis, Salt Lake and Pacific. The news is almost to be true. We don't know if he said it, but, did I see it in the Houston Herald.

It was so great, that it was necessary to keep the dealers supplied. On the day of publication, 2,000 copies were sold upon the news-stands of the great railroads; at the same time one of the New York publishers reported that 500 copies were disposed of in the afternoon of its appearance. Several of the dealers at the time of publication reported that they had sold more than 1,000 copies each.

February number of Science, of which 125,000 copies have been ordered as a first issue, contain a most interesting article by John C. Ropes, upon the business of Julius Caesar, and the traits, one of which, e
